Re: Registration No. 5908

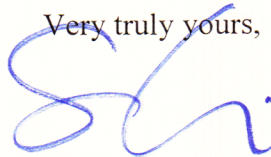

Dear Sir or Madam:

On January 9th, 2009, Park Strategies, LLC, and a number of its staff, registered as foreign agents for the Taipei Economic and Cultural Representative Office in the United States. Our Registration No. is 5908.

In furtherance of those efforts, please see enclosed recent relevant correspondence with U.S. government officials. The person who usually handles these filings is suddenly out for a while on extended medical leave. I've thus done my best to include everything here that may have fallen through the cracks in the last few days. Thanks in advance for your understanding and patience in this matter.

Should you have any questions concerning the enclosed, please contact the undersigned at (212) 883-5608.

Very truly yours,

Sean King

Sean, LaShaun and Joel,

Hi, it's Kevin Bogardus with The Hill newspaper.

Myself and another reporter are working on a story about lobbying for Taiwan. We noticed your firm is representing the Taipei Economic and Cultural Representative and we had a few questions about this, which are:

- Why lobby for Taiwan?
- What is your reaction to the Obama administration's decision not to sell F-16s to Taiwan?
- What is the next step for Taiwan beyond the Obama administration's decision not to sell F-16s to Taiwan?
- Does your firm believe there are the votes in Congress to pass legislation that would force the Obama administration to sell F-16s to Taiwan?

I wanted to give you a heads up that we plan to mention your firm and quote from emails and cite other documents that your firm filed with the Justice Department in our piece. It would be great if you could answer the above questions for our piece as well.

Please get back to me before 2 p.m. today. That is my deadline. Thank you for your help.

Sincerely,
Kevin Bogardus

Dear Jon,

As for Wednesday, how does Rep. Owens plan on getting to the event? The site's a little off the beaten path and parking's at a premium, but TECRO can save you and/or Rep. Owens a parking space if you want one. Just let me know, thanks. FYI, getting a cab out of there might be a little tough.

Dear Jay,

Good afternoon and this is Sharon from AmCham Taipei!

AmCham Taipei is very honored to have this opportunity to invite Rep. Reed to give a speech to our members. For the event announcement, we will need the topic, a short paragraph of speech outline, an official bio of Rep. Reed. I have attached some samples for your reference.

In order to draw enough attentions to the event, we normally need to release the announcement 3-4 weeks prior to the event. Please kindly provide the information required at your earliest convenience, or feel free to contact me for any question. Thank you.

Look forward to hearing from you soon.

Best regards,

Congresswoman Hayworth submitted the following for the record today.

Statement Congratulating 100th Anniversary of Taiwan

Mr. Speaker, October 10 marks the 100th anniversary of the creation of the Republic of China, which is now on Taiwan.

Just as the United States is considered a cultural melting pot, the Republic of China represents a society that has found success in embracing openness and respect for all citizens. As closely related and longstanding trade partners, the United States and Taiwan have a rich history of cooperating to create economic growth.

Since passage of the Taiwan Relations Act in 1979, the United States has been very supportive of the Republic of China, and, in turn, Taiwan has remained a friendly and faithful ally to the United States. America's support for the freedom, security, and stability of Taiwan stems from our shared foundation in individual liberty and from our mutual interest in defending peace and prosperity in the Pacific Rim region and throughout the world.

As a member of the Congressional Taiwan Caucus, I am committed to enhancing and strengthening U.S.-Taiwan relations, and ensuring that the Republic of China continues to thrive as a free and democratic country. I am working with my colleagues to ensure that Taiwan has the capacity to defend itself from potentially hostile nations, and to perpetuate the democratic ideals that inspired its creation.

I urge all my colleagues to join me in congratulating the Republic of China on completing its first century as a nation, and in renewing America's commitment to our common defense.

Elyse,

As it turns out, it'd be GREAT if Rep. Hayworth could insert a statement into the Record BEFORE Wednesday, Oct. 5, so that it can be acknowledged at the reception. But if not, before 10/10's still fine.

Speaking of the reception, any word yet on whether Rep. Hayworth can join Sen. D'Amato there that night?

Dear Mr. Bogardus,

Thanks for your e-mail. As you already know, Park Strategies, LLC, Park Strategies Managing Director Senator Alfonse M. D'Amato, and I are registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Taipei Economic and Cultural Representative Office (TECRO) in the United States. FYI, LaShaun's no longer with our firm.

Please see answers to each of your questions below.

-- Why lobby for Taiwan?

A: We are proud and privileged to represent Taiwan, a U.S. ally, a vibrant democracy and our nation's ninth-largest trading partner as of July 2011. Park Strategies Founder and Managing Director Senator Alfonse M. D'Amato has a long relationship with Taiwan, going back to his first visit there in 1982.

-- What is your reaction to the Obama administration's decision not to sell F-16s to Taiwan?

A: While we were pleased with the Administration's decision to upgrade Taiwan's existing F-16 A/Bs, we were disappointed the package didn't also include the new F-16 C/Ds. Considering Taiwan would only use these planes for defensive purposes, it was a short-sighted blunder on the Administration's part not to sell Taiwan the new planes. We can't let ourselves be bullied by Beijing. After all, the United States is Mainland China's #1 nation-state export market. Beijing needs us more than we sometimes realize.

-- What is the next step for Taiwan beyond the Obama administration's decision not to sell F-16s to Taiwan?

A: Taiwan should make the most of the F-16 A/B upgrades and the other items it got in the most recent arms sale, while continuing its push for the new F-16 C/Ds.

-- Does your firm believe there are the votes in Congress to pass legislation that would force the Obama administration to sell F-16s to Taiwan?

A: While difficult, it's possible. The most important thing is that the Congress continue to show as much support for Taiwan as possible, all the while working behind the scenes with the Administration toward the sale of the new F-16s. Friends of Taiwan must keep the pressure on to ensure this Administration, or a new one in 2013, sells Taiwan the new F-16 C/Ds. We, the United States, can never appear to waver in our commitment to, or support for, Taiwan.

Best wishes,

Sean, LaShaun and Joel,

Hi, it's Kevin Bogardus with The Hill newspaper.

Myself and another reporter are working on a story about lobbying for Taiwan. We noticed your firm is representing the Taipei Economic and Cultural Representative and we had a few questions about this, which are:

- Why lobby for Taiwan?
- What is your reaction to the Obama administration's decision not to sell F-16s to Taiwan?

I wanted to give you a heads up that we plan to mention your firm and quote from emails and cite other documents that your firm filed with the Justice Department in our piece. It would be great if you could answer the above questions for our piece as well.

Dear Mr. Bogardus,

Thanks for your e-mail. As you already know, Park Strategies, LLC, Park Strategies Managing Director Senator Alfonse M. D'Amato, and I are registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Taipei Economic and Cultural Representative Office (TECRO) in the United States. FYI, LaShaun's no longer with our firm.

Please see answers to each of your questions below.

-- Why lobby for Taiwan?

A: We are proud and privileged to represent Taiwan, a U.S. ally, a vibrant democracy and our nation's ninth-largest trading partner as of July 2011. Park Strategies Founder and Managing Director Senator Alfonse M. D'Amato has a long relationship with Taiwan, going back to his first visit there in 1982.

-- What is your reaction to the Obama administration's decision not to sell F-16s to Taiwan?

A: While we were pleased with the Administration's decision to upgrade Taiwan's existing F-16 A/Bs, we were disappointed the package didn't also include the new F-16 C/Ds. Considering Taiwan would only use these planes for defensive purposes, it was a short-sighted blunder on the Administration's part not to sell Taiwan the new planes. We can't let ourselves be bullied by Beijing. After all, the United States is Mainland China's #1 nation-state export market. Beijing needs us more than we sometimes realize.

-- What is the next step for Taiwan beyond the Obama administration's decision not to sell F-16s to Taiwan?

A: Taiwan should make the most of the F-16 A/B upgrades and the other items it got in the most recent arms sale, while continuing its push for the new F-16 C/Ds.

-- Does your firm believe there are the votes in Congress to pass legislation that would force the Obama administration to sell F-16s to Taiwan?

A: While difficult, it's possible. The most important thing is that the Congress continue to show as much support for Taiwan as possible, all the while working behind the scenes with the Administration toward the sale of the new F-16s. Friends of Taiwan must keep the pressure on to ensure this Administration, or a new one in 2013, sells Taiwan the new F-16 C/Ds. We, the United States, can never appear to waver in our commitment to, or support for, Taiwan.

Best wishes,
